

Errata

Publication V

It is erroneously stated that  $p$  and  $W$  are decoupled by using the decomposition. However, for a more generic utility function, the decomposition would indeed decompose  $W$  from the master problem as well. In that case, the overall problem would not be convex [98].