Errata

The attached articles are the author's own, personal transcripts of the published articles. They have been typeset with \LaTeX and contain graphics, tables, and equations of a much better visual appearance to those in the published articles. The list below depicts the other differences between the attached and the published articles. Only minor, typesetting-related changes have been done.

Publication I

Minor typographical errors and ambiguities have been fixed.

Publication II

Minor typographical errors and ambiguities have been fixed.
